

BRING THE TROOPS HOME NOW!

YEARS TOO MANY

Rally and March
1pm @SEI (5th & S. Craig, Oakland)

Saturday, March 29, 2008

Memorial Service for all victims of the Iraq war
2:30pm @Flagstaff Hill

Organized by the Thomas Merton Center anti-war committee

All-night vigil March 28, 7pm–7am @Community of Reconciliation, 5th & Bellefield

www.pittsburghendthewar.org

Sponsored by Thomas Merton Center; United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (UE); Service Employees International Union (SEIU); Women's International League for Peace and Freedom; The Peace and Justice Committee of St. James RC Church, Wilkinsburg; Community of Reconciliation; Pax Christi

Endorsers: Black Voices for Peace; W. PA SOA Watch; Code Pink; Raging Grannies; Green Party of Allegheny County; Peace and Social Justice Committee of La Roche College; Roots of Promise; Network of Spiritual Progressives Pgh; Pgh Palestine Solidarity Committee; W. PA Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons; Military Families Speak Out (MFSO) Pgh; Gold Star Families Speak Out (GSFSO) Pgh; Beaver County Peace Links; American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) PA Program; Haiti Solidarity Committee; International Socialist Organization; Demilitarize Pittsburgh; Physicians for Social Responsibility Pgh

Also, join us in Washington, D.C.
March 18 & 19, 2008

Nonviolent Action & Civil Disobedience
Initiated by United for Peace and Justice
Contact: pittsburgh@5yearstoomany.org